

KRONOS FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do I access Kronos on a computer?

http://fwisd.kronos.net/wfc/navigator/logon

Who needs to clock in and out?

- Non-exempt employees who are eligible for overtime
- All exempt employees working an extra assignment after their normal job duties.
- Substitutes
- All retirees, regardless of exempt or non-exempt status.

How do I punch in and out at a Kronos clock?

left corner of the clock will flashREEN.

What if my punch is not accepted?

• If the punch is not accepted, the indicator light (top left corner of the you see the error message "error reading badge", please try your pun able to punch in at a clock after multiple attempts, please contact you

What username and password do I use to login to Kronos on a computer?

 Employees will use their username (without @fwisd.org) and passwor computer.

Do I need to clock out for lunch?

No, you do not. Only your arrival punch and departure punch are req

What should I do if I forgot to clock out?

• Should you miss a punch, please email us at Substitutes@fwisd.org. P employee id, job number for that day, and your missed time in your email.

What if I lost my badge?

• Please contact Talent Management at 817-814-2717 to inquire on how to obtain a replacement. Your first badge is complementary. Replacement badges are $25.

Can my friend clock me in or out if I give them my badge?

• NO. this is against District Policy.

What happens if I clock in twice?

- The clocks will not accept duplicate punches within a two-minute span. After two minutes, the second punch will be captured as an out punch.
- Multiple punches using a computer will be captured as IN and OUT punches.

What if the clock is not working?

You will be able to log in to Kronos via a computer and submit your punch.

I am a substitute, why is there a schedule on my time card and why is it different on some days?

• Substitutes will have the schedule of the employee or job number they are working for applied to the time card.